

Happiness Is Homemade Recipe Album

To create my recipe album, I used the just released Recipe Album Kit along with the Cooking Cut File Bundle, Currently Journaling Clear Stamps, and white cardstock.

Before we start, anything that talks about white cardstock, you can substitute for a photo or use it as a photo mat.

We'll start by decorating the front cover of the recipe album. Here are the steps to decorate the cover:

1. You'll need to cut a piece of Peacock Colour Vibe Textured Cardstock that measures $6\frac{1}{4}''$ x $8\frac{3}{4}''$. Sand the edges of the plain side of the paper and adhere to the right side of the cover.
2. From the 6x8 Paper Pad, cut a piece from the floral paper that measures $6''$ x $8''$. Sand the edges and adhere the floral paper to the right side of the peacock paper.
3. Stick the woodgrain washi tape to a piece of white cardstock. Cut the washi tape down to $8\frac{3}{4}''$ and adhere otop of the peacock paper and red side of the cover. Stick the yellow gingham washi tape to a piece of white cardstock. Cut the washi tape down to $4\frac{1}{4}''$, notch the left end out.

4. Wrap twine three times around the album and tie a bow.
5. Cut out the Happiness is Homemade from the Cooking Cut File Bundle from a piece of warm white colour vibe textured cardstock. Size the title down to 2" x 6 ¼". Back the Happiness Is using the yellow gingham paper. Cut out the utensils from the same cut file out of kraft cardstock. Size the utensils to under 1". Cut out the bowl from the same cut file out of peacock colour vibe textured cardstock. Size the bowl down to 2 ¾". Back the bowl using the same cardstock that you cut it out of.
6. Fussy cut around the jar out of the What's Cookin? Journal Bits.
7. Adhere a label sticker out of the sticker book 1 3/8" from the bottom and 1 ½" from the right of the floral paper. Adhere the yellow gingham strip slightly above the label. Adhere a circle out of the sticker book 1" from the right and 1" from the bottom of the floral paper. Adhere another circle sticker 1 1/8" from the left and 4 ¼" from the top of the floral paper.
8. Adhere two utensils to the right of the circle sticker you just adhered as desired.
9. Adhere a tab sticker to the right of the jar image as desired. Foam square the jar 5/8" from the right and 1 ¾" from the top of the floral paper. Adhere a utensil, rolling pin from the sticker book and oven mit from the sticker book to the right of the jar as desired. Use adhesive and foam squares to adhere the chipboard scale to the left of the jar as desired. Use adhesive and foam squares to adhere the bowl slightly over top of the utensils and oven mit on the right side of the jar.
10. Adhere the recipes chipboard sticker to the top portion of the bowl.
11. Use adhesive and foam squares to adhere the Happiness Is Homemade title to the bottom portion of the jar as desired.
12. Adhere three chipboard hearts around the jar as desired.

Inside Front Cover – I left the inside from cover blank. Feel free to decorate it as desired.
